

OBSERVER

10 Things to Do in the New York Art World Before June 26

By Paul Laster | 06/22/15

TUESDAY JUNE 23

Drawing of Old Trees during wintry days 2007-2014, 2007-2014. (Courtesy Lehmann Maupin)

Opening: “Patrick Van Caekenbergh” at Lehmann Maupin

Belgian artist Patrick Van Caekenbergh presents a sculptural installation and a series of drawings in his first exhibition with powerhouse gallery Lehmann Maupin. A conceptual artist, Mr. Van Caekenbergh displays 200 hand-blown, discarded glass bell jars that once protected religious icons. The display’s mirrored shelves give the illusion that the jars go on ad infinitum. Surrounding the installation on the gallery walls is a series of graphite drawings of trees in winter.

Lehmann Maupin, 201 Chrystie Street, New York, 6-8 p.m.